

Kids Klub

A space where the kids do the thinking

Children under 12 years of age can meet at the Women's and Children's Hospital to participate in health planning, decision-making and consultation.

Using play-based techniques, arts, crafts, lego and sport; children are assigned a topic to explore so they provide collective improvement ideas.

The Kids Klub recommendations are provided to the Youth Advisory Group and the Consumer and Community Partnering Council.

For further information:

Allan Ball
Manager, Consumer and Community Engagement
☎ 8161 6935 or allan.ball@sa.gov.au

Government of South Australia

SA Health